FOREIGN NATIONS ARE QUESTIONED

Effort Made to See How They Stand on Root's Reservations to the Peace Treaty

4 SENATORS CALLED TODAY

Kellogg, Minnesota, Capper and Mc-
Nary Discuss Document With President Today

(By United Press.)

Washington, July 18.—Foreign governments are being sounded on their attitude toward Root's proposed reservations to the peace treaty in the event the senate should adopt one or all of them, a leading administration senator said today.

This senator, who declined to be quoted directly, declared that if the senate adopts the reservations, they will be proposed by at least one other government.

The general result, he declared,
would be a serious delay in carrying out the peace settlement through delaying the final ratification, to make the treaty effective, and would hamper the immediate and successful launching of the league of nations.

In other words, this senator declared reservations, if passed by the senate, would "vitalize the contract"
the nation has made for restoration and maintenance of peace.

Senator Kellogg said today that President Wilson's talk with him was "along the same line as with other senators." Kellogg said that his opinion has not been changed.

President Wilson today continued his attack on the opposition to the league of nations by calling to the White House four republican senators who are known to be open minded on the subject.

They are Senators Kellogg, Minnesota; Kenyon, Iowa; Capper, Kansas and McNary, Oregon.

Kellogg has favored a league of nations in principle for some time, Kenyon's attitude is considered doubtful. Capper is known to favor the formation of a league but would like certain amendments to the league.
McNary is believed to desire
some kind of league organization.

The president is expected to follow the same line of argument as he did yesterday with the first three republican senators called.

He will not ask the senators to change their opinions but will merely give them the inside information

THE POLICE SAY THAT EVERYONE WAS LIT UP

No One in Court For Two Mornings
And Tail Lights Are Burning
Properly

MUST ALSO PARK RIGHT

No one has been up before Mayor
Irvin the last two mornings, on charges of violating the automobile laws, and the police especially have not found anyone violating the tail light law. The police remarked this morning, that as far as they could see, "everyone was lit up." They noticed a few machines passing without the proper lights, but could not catch them.

There seems to be some misunderstanding among the automobilists that the traffic ordinances are to apply in the residence district
just the same as in the business district. The proper turning at corners and the same parking methods, apply in the residential portion, and
the police have often been rebuked,
after notifying the car owner about parking on the wrong side of the street.

EXPECTED HOME BY AUG. 1

Captain Will S. Coleman is Back
From Overseas

Captain Will S. Coleman, former Rushville physician, has landed in New York and expects to be out of the service by August 1, according to word received here. He is officially stationed at Camp Dix, but is staying at the Hotel McAlpin in New York. Capt. Coleman was commissioned a first lieutenant and entered the service August 12, 1918.
After a short period of training in a southern camp, he sailed for France September 22 and was pormoted while serving in France. He was stationed at Tours all the time he was overseas.

GRAVE MARKER IS UNEARTHED BY MEN

Monument of Will Arnold is Found
Underneath of Porch at Old
Innis Property.

HOW DID IT GET THERE?

Many People Recall Incidents But
Monument is dated 1832, Which
is Too Far Back.

Men, while digging for a foundation, at the old Innis property, corner of Fourth and Morgan streets, unearthed a monument, badly de-cayed on account of its age. The granite slab had the name of Will Arnold inscribed on it, and gave his birth as June 11, 1805, and his death as in July, 1832, the exact date being obscure.

The workmen are at a loss to explain just how the monument got there, buried underneath of the veranda, which was being torn down.
Being dated back so far, no one has any recollections of what it might mean and rumors were going around this A. M. that probably the man's body was buried underneath of the porch; and some one else said that they remember a time when a man was hung at the same site where the house was built.

It was also reported that at one time a man by the name of Arnold lived there, but no one could give out anything which might explain the mystery of the monument.

The most likely thing about the monument is that at one time, it was used, like many are today, to keep the water from washing out the ground at the base of the downspouts on houses. Anyway, the Mr.
Arnold has been dead for a long,
long time.

FOREST FIRES NOT CHECKED

30,000 Acres Reduced to Ashes and Several Ranches Burning

(By United Press.)

Spokane, Wash., July 18.—With 30,000 acres of forests reduced to smoldering ashes, several ranches burning and thousands of men fighting the flames, the fires were reported today to be holding their own against the crew of men trying to exhaust them.

A change in wind saved thousands of acres by back-firing the blaze. The cold night helped to check the spread of the flames. Only one fire was reported out of control
today and about fifty men were called to fight this blaze.

TREATY ABOUT READY

Paris, July 18.—The allied reparation bill for Bulgaria will be from one to two billion francs, it was learned today. A decision was reached to avoid elaborate reparation provisions by naming a fixed sum. The peace treaty with Bulgaria was nearly completed today.

PLANS MADE FOR EGG CULLING TEST

Leroy Jones, Purdue Extension Agent, Met With Poultrymen
Here Yesterday

ARRANGE TOWNSHIP MEETS

Egg Production and Profit go Hand
In Hand—Tells How to Produce Properly

LeRoy Jones, Extension Poultry-man, met the poultrymen in the County Agent's Office yesterday afternoon and discussed the keeping of records, method of feeding, and management of the farm flock.

Plans for the culling demonstrations which will be held on August 12 and 13 were discussed. Four culling demonstrations will be conducted on these two dates by Mr.
Jones. Arrangements were made for a demonstration to be held in each Township by some one of the poultry fanciers who learn the methods
at the demonstrations.

These poultrymen will cull their own flocks on the succeeding week
and those who do not have the opportunity of attending one of the meetings with Mr. Jones can attend
one of the township meetings.

In discussing the value of keeping egg and feed records, Mr. Jones told an interesting story of the growth of E. W. Foster of Lawrence County who began keeping records with the Extension Department in 1915. During that year Mr. Foster produced 115 eggs per hen and made $180.00 net profit. He fed milk to his hens up till the first of June when he thought best to give the milk to other stock. The egg production dropped from 58 percent in May to 33 percent in June. Mr.
Jones happened on the scene at this time and he explained the necessity of feeding either tankage, meat scrap, or milk. Tankage was supplied and the egg production raised to 45 percent for July and 51 percent for August.

Mr. Foster is still keeping records
he added, and during the three years 1916 to '18 inclusive he made a net profit on his 200 hens of $1400. His egg production for the four years of record work grew
each year as follows: 1915—115
eggs, 1916—135 eggs, 1917—146
eggs and 1918—158 eggs per hen.

$9 BELIEVED TO BE CONSCIENCE MONEY

T. M. Green Notified of Receipt of Sum by Revenue Collector Without Explanation.

NO NAME SIGNED TO LETTER

Some one in Rush county has sent a remittance to Peter J. Kray-er, collector of internal revenue and in their haste, either forgot to say for what, or for whom, the $9.00
was sent.

The remittance was made in an envelop belonging to the Rush County Council of Defense and it is supposed that the currency was sent in this manner for a reason and not unintentionally. Thomas M.
Green, former chairman of the defense body, received a letter to that effect today from the department of revenue collections, asking him to aid them in finding a place to give the proper person credit.

Some people thought today that probably the money was sent from some conscious-stricken person, who left their name off intentionally. If anyone sent the $9.00, they should get the proper credit, and notify Mr. Green, who will reply to the internal revenue collector.

EYES OF WORLD ON RUSH COUNTY MAN

Charles H. Smith, Union Township
Boy, Holds Most Important
Position in Russia Today.

SON OF LATE CALVIN SMITH

He is Member of the Inter-Allied
Commission, Reorganizing Rail-
roads in Russia.

It is a native of Rush county who gives Uncle Sam his orders as to the Russian railway system, and this distinction belongs to Charles H.
Smith, of Union township. Charles Smith was born and reared here in Rush county, and worked his way up in railroad circles until he was chosen from hundreds of leading railway experts, to a position which is one of the most important in the world today.

His father, Calvin Smith, died here
only a few years ago, and only two sons comprised the immediate family. The other son, Will A., is in the implement business at Greenfield.
The late Calvin Smith was a brother to the late Dr. Wm. H. Smith of this city, and Charles Smith is a first cousin to Donald, Dr. Will C., and Walter Smith and others in this county.

After graduating from DePauw,
he entered Michigan university,
where he graduated in the civil engineering course. After graduating he accepted a position with the Missouri Pacific railroad, with headquarters in St. Louis, and was working there at the time of his father's death.

He has the distinction of being one of the foremost engineers in charge of the building of the famous Moditt railroad over the Rocky Mountains, and it was there that the government recognized the man they wanted to send to Russia. His appointment was considered, after some of the leading experts of his line, had made application.

Dr. Will C. Smith of this city, commenting on his cousin's position
this morning, remarked that he was truly a wonderful genius in his line of work, and displayed a photograph of him which resembles the likeness of the Smith family here. He is a man about 47 years old.

Mr. Smith is a member of the Inter-Allied Commission for the reorganization of the Russian railroads.

STARTED THEIR TERMS AT JEFFERSONVILLE

Two Rushville Men Sentenced From Shelbyville Are Now at Real
Hard Work

IS QUITE A RELIEF HERE

Chester Taylor and Sylvia Miller,
the Rushville men who plead guilty to the larceny charge in Shelbyville
on Wednesday, were taken yesterday to Jeffersonville by the Shelby county sheriff, where they were sentenced to serve a term from one to fourteen years.

Local officials commented today,
that it would be a relief, not to have them here, getting into trouble.
When arrested at Shelbyville, while attempting to sell stolen corn, it was thought that the men would be brought to trial here, because the deed took place in Rush county, but local officials made no effort to get them here, as it was certain that they would be dealt with properly
by the Shelby court.

By sending Taylor to the prison,
it releases his bondsman here of the $1,000 bond which he was held on, after pleading not guilty to a bootlegging charge in the circuit court here.

100,000 MEN LOCKED OUT

Due to Failure of Part to Return to Work at 8 A. M. Today

(By United Press.)

Chicago, July 17.—One hundred thousand building and street construction workers were locked out here today on order of the Carpenters Contracting association and the Building Construction Employers' association following the refusal of 80,000 of the men to return to work.
The men asked an increase of 20 cents an hour in their wages. The employers agreed to grant them 12 cents more. An ultimatum was issued 8 a. m. today, to return to work.
When no men showed up at that time the lock-out order was issued.
The wage loss to the men was estimated at $600,000.

AGAIN ATTACHED TO BILL AS RIDER

Repeal of Daylight Saving Law
Once More Put in Agriculture
Measure by House

DESPITE VETO BY WILSON

Senate Appropriation Committee
Votes Favorably on Amended
Civil Sundry Bill

(By United Press.)

Washington, July 18.—Repeal of the daylight saving plan was again attached as a rider to the agricultural appropriation bill by the house agriculture committee today.

This action was taken despite the fact that President Wilson already had once vetoed the bill, because of the daylight savings repeal.

Administration foes are determined to force the agricultural appropriation bill and repeal clause
through the house and put it before the president again.

The new bill differs from the one already vetoed in that it exempts
from repeal the standard time zone.

The senate appropriation committee today voted to report favorably
the sundry civil bill as passed by the house.

The bill once vetoed by President Wilson, carried $14,000,000 for vocational education for soldiers and sailors. The house increased the measure $6,000,000 more than the veto asked for. No change was made in the measure as repassed by
the house.

MRS. PHOEBE AMMON DIES

One Time Rushville Woman Expires
At Columbia, S. C.

Word has been received by John Rich, of Falmouth, of the death of his sister, Mrs. Phoebe Ammon, of Columbia, South Carolina. The body of the deceased has been shipped and is expected to arrive late tonight or in the morning. Mrs. Ammon was eighty-six years old and formerly was a resident of this city, having left here ten years ago, for South Carolina.

The funeral services will be announced upon the arrival of the body.

What's In a Name?

Walter Easley, proprietor of the Princess Theater, and his small son Wilbur, were passing the Willard battery station here a few days ago when the boy casually looked up and remarked:
"They'll have to change that name to Dempsey now, won't they pop?"

SCHOOL CHILDREN CAN EARN GRENADE

Real Instruments of War Will be Given to Children to be Used As Savings Banks

WAR STAMP DRIVE FEATURE

Local Banks Will be Supplied With
The Small Banks to be Used
This Summer

Rushville school children will have an opportunity to obtain hand grenade banks, according to an announcement made today by Robert E. Springsteen, director of the Indiana War Savings Committee. Local banks will be supplied with these small banks, and any child under seventeen can have one by pledging to buy War Savings Stamps. An announcement will be made later, when the banks here have them on hands.

Mr. Springsteen explains about the hand grenades, and tells how they may be obtained, in the following:

"The hand grenade is the highest modern development of a time-honored weapon. The War Department owned 15,000,000 when the armistice was signed. Some of these are now available through the Savings Division of the Treasury Department for distribution to school children as savings banks to encourage the forming of habits of thrift.

"These hand grenade savings banks are real hand grenades with the percussion caps and high explosives removed. They are, with the exception of the money slot, externally the same as those the Sammies used to clean out crooks and bonds in captured trenches, enemy dug-outs and machine gun nests. A five hand grenade was not dangerous until the ring and pin has been withdrawn which freed the trigger that started a percussion cap, resulting in a terrific explosion within three or five seconds. The small squares of steel thrown by the explosion were deadly within radius of 40 to 50 feet.

Every child or grown-up will want
one of these souvenirs of the world war. Only those who are willing to save and help their government can have them as the War Savings Organization is the sole distributor in the Seventh Federal Reserve District and we are distributing them through banks to school children

do you know any of these facts?

On June 1st the U. S. Bureau of Markets report 1,348,000,000 pounds of meat in cold storage. There are about 75,000,000 pounds of meat consumed per day—just about 19 days supply. One of the big packers says only 10 per cent of our meat production is exported—from now on this will greatly increase, especially as to pork. The world is short of fats—only about 6 per cent of the above cold storage supply is lard. This means about 4,500,000 pounds daily supply of lard, or as a Chicago packer says, four-fifths of a pound per capita. No doubt Europe will take a great deal of this.

Breed good hogs and feed good feed to good and poor swine. If we know a better feed than good old Fat Back Hog Feed that sells so cheaply—$7.00 a ton less than corn we would handle it. We know of none such—neither do you.

under a uniform plan, the conditions of which are as follows:

"1. One grenade is to be loaned by the bank to any child under seventeen years of age signing the Thrift agreement.

"2. It is to be opened by the bank when presented by the child, and Thrift or War Savings Stamps given in exchange for the contents.

"3. It will become the property of the child as soon as he has thus purchased through the bank one or more War Savings Stamps (maturity value $5.00 each), children under 10 being required to buy one War Savings Stamp and those over 10 two stamps.

"4. The bank is to fill out and give the child at the end of the vacation period (if a school child) a certificate of his summer savings in order that he may present same to his teacher, and get credit therefor in the War Savings Society now or hereafter organized in his grade.

"5. If the bank so desires, it may ask the children who earn these souvenirs to write essays on "How I Won My Hand Grenade," offering such essay prizes and publishing such essays as it desires. The War Savings Organization requests copy of the essay winning first honors in case your bank conducts a contest.

The Federal Reserve District officials are writing to every bank in the state, pointing out the advertising value to the banks in issuing the hand grenades. The bank will be permitted to have a metal tag bearing its name attached to each hand grenade bank. Mr. Springsteen said that it is his belief that at least 50,000 school children of Indiana will receive his little bank grenade savings bank. He based his opinion on the large number of children that pledged themselves to their school teachers that they would save during the summer.

There is a Heap of Solace in Being Able to Depend Upon a Well-Earned Reputation

For months Rushville readers have seen the constant expression of praise for Doan's Kidney Pills, and read about the good work they have done in this locality. What other remedy ever produced such convincing proof of merit?

A. M. Younger, retired farmer, 828 W. Tenth St., Rushville says: "I have been using Doan's Kidney Pills off and on for about ten years and they have done me good. When a man gets as old as I, he is apt to have more or less trouble with his kidneys. At times I have had a dull ache across the small of my back and my back has been weak and lame. Then the kidney secretions have been too frequent in passage, causing me to get up at night. Every time I have been, that way, I have bought a box of Doan's Kidney Pills at Johnson's Drug Store and they have never failed to relieve me in a short time."

Washing that will make Clothes Wear Longer

- ¶ The many methods for washing clothes can be reduced to two classifications.
- ¶ Either they wear clothes out quickly—or they make clothes longer-lived.
- ¶ Only the sturdiest homespuns could endure the scrub-board treatment to which grandmothers subjected the family clothes.
- ¶ Ours is the modern way—the way that makes it possible for you to obtain the longest possible service from the household linens and garments you buy.
- ¶ When you send us your garments and other household articles, they are never jerked back and forth over a wash-board. Our method is the simpler one of soaking and rinsing in tubs containing the proper chemical solution.
- ¶ Some of the dainty materials undergo an entirely different treatment than your woolen clothes, and we are equipped to cleanse any kind of material, from automobile seat covers, grandmother's shawl or baby's bonnet to your very rugs on your floors.

Dowagiac Steerable One-Horse Disc

The front wheel is a caster wheel permitting a short turn without lifting the drill and making steering between crooked rows easy.

The feeds are chain-driven from the axle of the two rear wheels which have ratchet hubs making both wheels drivers.

The Dowagiac five disc is self-guiding. It trails so perfectly that when the horse is driven midway between the corn rows the driver need not touch the handles and at the ends of rows the drill follows the horse in making the short turn. Each disc has independent up and down motion with spring pressure—the only way for uniform depth on uneven ground. With the convenient lever all discs are lifted when turning or transporting the drill to and from the field.

Have you tried

SWIFT'S TANKAGE?

Practically every one of the county's biggest hog raisers are now feeding it.

If these men think enough of Swift's Digester Tankage to feed it the year round, is it not worth your while to give it at least a trial?

Judging from results, you will find it to be the best and cheapest of all hog feeds.

Corn and other farm grown feeds and Swift's Digester Tankage make an ideal ration for hogs.

FORD SAYS A MOBILE ARMY IS A LARGE ONE

Admits he Knows Little About Military Affairs, in Testifying in Libel Suit Today.

Mt. Clemens, Mich., July 18.—"A mobile army is a large army," Henry Ford told the attorneys quizzing him today as a witness in his million dollar libel suit against the Chicago Tribune.

"Do you know what a mobile army is?" the Tribune lawyer asked. "A large army," Ford answered. "I don't know much about military affairs," he commented when the attorney defined the term.

The definition was given out while the Tribune lawyer struggled to get admission of evidence to show what was in the famous peace advertisements of Ford.

Theodore Delavigne, his peace secretary, wrote the advertisement, Ford said, adding he had warned Delavigne to stick closely to facts.

Attorney Stevenson produced the Tribune editorial which was the basis of the suit.

"Please read it," he said, as he offered it to Ford.

The manufacturer asked to be excused.

"Then I will read it myself," Stevenson said.

"Will you please stop me if I read anything of an anarchistic nature?" he asked.

Ford stopped him when he read the headlines, "Ford Is An Anarchist."

At this point some time was lost by arguments by attorneys.

Attorney Lucking, Ford's attorney, called Stevenson's attitude brutal and inhuman.

Investing For College.

What do pig-club and canning-club boys and girls do with their project money? This question was put to 350 girls and boys at a recent meet of club members held at Purdue University.

It was found that 58 of those present owned Liberty Bonds, which they had purchased with their own earnings; 109 had War Savings Stamps; and practically everyone had bought Thrift Stamps. Out of then number questioned 117 had made definite plans to apply the money made in club work to a college education.

Hitching the plow to the college. There you have the American farm girl and boy of 1919. Having these young people at college is going to mean even bigger crops than are now in sight on our farms in this year of wonders.

Just how tight is this hitch to the college going to be? What is the American farmer doing to back up the ambitious boy and girl who has learned to invest in Government securities? What proportion of our eight billion dollar corn, wheat and oat crop is going into college education?

If only one percent of the value of these three crops alone is invested in Government securities, 10,000 boys and girls will be the possessors in 1924 of one-thousand dollar Treasury Savings certificates. This is what the overnment will do to further the farmer's plan. It will add $162 in 1924 to every $838 invested in Treasury Savings Certificates in August 1919, or it will add $16.20 for every $83.80 invested, or 81 cents for every $4.19 invested. These are August prices for Government securities. The price advances each month to the end of the year, but it must be remembered that each advance brings the maturity date a month nearer.

But fortunately for those who have learned to invest the story does not end with 1919. The Government what the Government will do to further any man's saving plan this year and the next and the next to the end that the habit of thrift and saving may become a permanent part of the national life. The Secretary of the Treasury recently made public the purpose of the Treasury Department to make permanent the War Savings movement, and to continue the sale of Thrift Stamps, War Savings Stamps, and Savings Certificates.

This announcement has special interest for all club girls and boys who are planning a college education. It means even more to fathers and mothers who are backing up the college plan or undertaking some other investment plan. In fact it means a great deal to the average American to have within easy reach Government securities ranging in value from $5 to $1,000 which combine high interest and tax exemption. It means that young and old may continue the lessons in finance learned during the war, that they may build their fortunes by regular investments in Government securities and at the same time help supply the capital so urgently needed to restore the world to a peacetime basis.

It transpires, however, that it was both a sane and a senseless Fourth-

JEWES ARE AGAINST THE BOLSHEVIKS

Due to the Fact That Jews Have Been Heaviest Losers Among Bourgeoisie of Russia.

PEASANTS WERE FAVORED.

On Other Hand it is True That Some Jewish Intellectuals Have Become Leaders in Bolshevism.

By FRANK J. TAYLOR.
(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

New York, July 18—Bolshevism is not a revolution by the Russian Jews for the Russian Jews, as is popularly believed according to the bolsheviks. Investigating the way the Jews line-up with regard to bolshevism leads to the conclusion that three-fourths of the Jews are against bolshevism.

This stand on the part of the majority of Jews is probably due to the fact that the Jews have been the heaviest losers among the little bourgeoisie of Russia. This is especially true of small cities. In the provincial districts most of the Jews were buyers and sellers and had gathered together small fortunes, usually from five to twenty-five thousand rubles. Today that sum is nothing, but in the old days it represented quite an amount, comparatively speaking, enough to enable operation of a small business.

Generally the Jewish merchant lost this fortune entirely through confiscations of stocks in stores, or of warehouses of wool and cotton grains. It was the Jew who lost heavily because he had most. While fortunes of merchants were confiscated, either without payment or at low prices set by the state, the peasant was allowed to sell at market prices. Confiscation was not attempted with the peasant, who was regarded as a producer.

A typical case was called to the attention of the correspondent while he was interviewing the chief of the economic soviet in Moscow. Two Jews from the provinces reached Moscow and immediately put their case before the soviet for decision. They had been sent by the merchants of their village, almost all Jews all of whom were required to give up wool and other goods they had invested in at a price set by the government. The peasants, on the other hand, were allowed to sell at a competitive price.

What the result of the protest was, the correspondent could not learn, since it had to be passed along to several soviets, and numerous yards of red tape had to be unwound before the matter could be solved. Probably the goods were confiscated before the decision could be altered.

Similarly, in all towns the Jews have run small shops which have been closed by the bolsheviks. The Jews were the ones who lost their means of support, and had to go to work at new places. The Jewish rabbis have been against bolshevism from the beginning and have exercised a great influence over their people.

On the other hand, it is true that a large percentage of Jewish intellectuals, mostly men who have been the victims of the old government, have become leaders in the bolshevik movement.

This has been explained by the fact that under the old regime Jews were prevented from entering certain other lines of activity, by laws which discriminated against the Hebrews. The Jews naturally took to intellectual pursuits and became writers, lawyers, and thinkers. They welcomed any system which would guarantee them an equal opportunity. These intellectuals quickly adjusted themselves to the bolshevik ideas, and owing to their keenness and energy, many came out on top in the new government.

That the majority of bolsheviks are Jews is not true, it is evident. Probably they have a large percentage of representation in governmental positions than the Gentiles, but every effort is made by the soviet government to prevent the issue from arising.

The bolsheviks are trying to prevent discrimination from being made against the Jews, and have succeeded remarkably well. The principal Jewish problem seems to be along the borders, where the armies are fighting. There the reported "pogroms" are causing bitter feeling. According to the bolsheviks the "pogroms", resulting in the massacre of entire villages, are confined to the anti-bolshevik side of the line. The worst Jewish "pogroms" have been in the south, mostly in the Ukraine. Many villages of Jews have been wiped out, according to the best information available.

Play With a Moral

David W. Griffith's superb picture "A Romance of Happy Valley," which will be shown for the last time tonight, at the Princess is a photoplay with a distinct moral. It is a story of simple folk, but its treatment is so powerful as to make it a screen classic whose power for good is far reaching and effective. The various roles are charmingly portrayed, the principals being Lillian Gish, Robert Harron, George Fawcett and Kate Bruce.

A trick finger ring with a secret chamber for hiding some small but precious article may well be said to be the inspiration for the dramatic climax in "The Law of Men," the latest Thomas H. Ince photoplay starring Enid Bennett, which will be shown tomorrow.

The story was written by John Lynch who in connection with his literary work has been a globe trotter and a constant collector of curios and antiques. It was during a visit to Cairo, Egypt, several years ago that he found the curious ring at a weird little shop conducted by an old Egyptian. He assured the American collector that it was an exact copy of the ring worn by ancient Egyptian rulers that they might commit suicide when they were in danger of falling into the hands of an enemy.

Of course, Mr. Lynch didn't believe the story, but the ring was not expensive and the idea, he thought, was worthy of sometime working into a modern story, so he bought the novelty. He has now made use of it in a dramatic way in a modern courtroom scene. It is used by Andrew Robson, who plays the part of a criminal lawyer in "The Law of Men," in which Enid Bennett is featured, supported by Niles Welch and an all star cast. The picture was directed by Fred Niblo, under the supervision of Thomas H. Ince.

"Virtuous Men" Next Week

News of particular interest to the motion picture patrons of Rushville comes in the announcement of Manager R. D. Sampson that E. K. Lincoln favorite male star of the screen is soon to be seen at the Mystic Theatre in "Virtuous Men," a big society melodrama personally directed by Ralph Ince. For several years Mr. Lincoln has been regarded as one of the bright particular luminaries of the photoplay world. Through his successful appearances in many productions he has established himself as one of the outstanding figures of the present constellation of stars who dominate the silver screen. Lincoln is the ideal type of leading man. Standing a trifle over six feet in height, with handsome features which lend themselves admirably to the art of motion picture photography, he possesses a peculiarly winning personality. He differs materially from certain other players of the screen in that he possesses decided acting ability combining a perfect type for pictures with real histrionic talents.

Mr. Lincoln is ably supported in "Virtuous Men" by such well-known players as Grace Darling, whose features are known from coast to coast, due to a trans-continental tour made a few years ago, and Clara Joel, the legitimate actress who scored a distinct personal triumph in the successful Broadway plays, "Business Before Pleasure" and "Within the Law," and many other favorites of stage and screen.

Where Can I Find Relief From Itching, Terrifying Eczema?

Question on Lips Afflicted.

There is a harrassing discomfort caused by Eczema that almost becomes a torture. The itching is almost unbearable, and the skin seems on fire with the burning irritation. A cure from local applications of salves and ointments is impossible, because such treatment can only allay the pain temporarily. The disease can only be reached by going deep down to its source, which is in the blood, the disease being caused by an infection which breaks out through the skin. That is why the most satisfactory treatment for all so-called skin diseases is S. S. S. for this remedy so thoroughly cleanses the blood that no impurities can remain. Get a bottle today, and you will see results from the right treatment. Medical advice free. Address Medical Director, 48 Swift Bldg., Atlanta, Ga.

Mr. Swine Breeder:

Are you vaccinating your hogs with Hog Cholera Serum when your hogs may have Necrotic Enteritis Hemorrhagic Septicemia, Necro-Bacillosis or any of a number of contagious and infectious diseases prevalent this year? If so, do you know that it will increase the death rate instead of lowering it? Do you know that we will not vaccinate your herd with Hog Cholera Serum if they have another distinct disease until the herd is free, as far as possible from the other infection.

Do you know that we have all the authority on Swine Diseases, both from the State and Washington, D. C., to aid us? Do you know that a layman who vaccinates could lose all the hogs in the county and would have no professional reputation to lose, while by law we must keep a record of serum and virus used, and could lose our permits to practice? Do you think the layman receives less for vaccinating your hogs than we do? If you really don't know, why don't you find out? If the layman farmer who vaccinates, if he is intelligent, could make more on his farm, would he be vaccinating? Would you prefer to pay that fee to a layman for the mere act of injecting your swine without an expert knowledge of their diseases or would you rather pay us a less fee and at least have the protection of the best authority that we could get, either from State or Government?

Do you know that many stockholders of the Swine Breeders' Pure Serum Company are employing us to vaccinate for them this year, because they will be protected if necessary by the best authority in the country.

Remember the Veterinarians discovered Hog Cholera Serum and Bacterin and Vaccine treatment and other treatments for other diseases without cost to you.

Remember they are the only ones qualified to continue research work on swine diseases and every day are working hard to get better treatment for the other diseases of swine.

Mr. Swine Breeder think this over seriously for your own protection.

Respectfully,
Dragoo & Mull,
Veterinarians

"A Little Off of Main, But It Pays to Walk"

The regular Tri Kappa meeting, which was to have been held Monday evening has been postponed until Monday evening, July 27. At this time the sorority will meet with Miss Jessie Anderson at her home, south of the city.

A large crowd from this city attended the dance given at Glenwood last evening. Music was furnished by Milton's orchestra throughout the evening. Many were in attendance from Knightstown, Connersville and Falmouth also.

The captains and officers of the C. W. B. M. of the Little Flat Rock Christian church will hold a short business session at the church Sunday morning in the rear room. Each captain is requested to be present or send a representative.

The Ladies Aid Society of the United Brethren church was entertained yesterday afternoon by Mrs. Jesse McDaniel at her home in West Seventh street. An interesting program was carried out after which refreshments were served.

Mrs. Nellie Abercrombie was hostess for the Marion Social Circle yesterday afternoon at her home in West Fourth street. The hours were spent socially over various kinds of needlework, after which light refreshments were served. Besides the members present there was one guest.

The Woman's Home Missionary Society of the Methodist church met yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Charles Moore at her home in North Sexton street. No regular program was carried out, on account of Mrs. George Havens being unable to be present, but Mrs. John Jordan, who attended the Methodist Centenary at Columbus, Ohio, gave an interesting talk on the Exposition, which was followed by a social hour. Twenty members and one guest, Mrs. Hugo Moffitt of Cincinnati were present.

as to why certain decisions were made in Paris and the inclusion of certain clauses.

The conferences yesterday, and those for today were the first of a long series of similar meetings Mr. Wilson is arranging with members of the opposition party in the senate, whom he proposes to take into his confidence concerning the conduct of the peace negotiations at Versailles. So far he has called in only those senators who have expressed themselves in favor of the treaty, or who have not made a public declaration either for or against, but later he is expected to confer with virtually every Republican senator, including those who have most bitterly opposed ratification.

The position taken by President Wilson in his talks yesterday, was understood to be that "the United States could not undertake to decide the force of any reservation adopted, no matter how general might be the agreement here that it did not vitiate the covenant. It was said the President regarded the treaty in the light of a contract, and felt that any change or reservation whatever must have the acquiescence of the other parties, and could not be interpreted by the party inserting it.

The following statement has been made by Senator Lodge regarding the possibility of a meeting between the President and the senate foreign relations committee:

"There seems to be in the press a great deal of misunderstanding about the President desiring to appear before the committee on foreign relations. No committee of congress has any right or ought to have any right to summon the President of the United States before them and no suggestion has been made that they should do so. The ground which Madison took, that he could not receive officially a committee of the senate because the senate was an independent and co-ordinate branch and the dealings of the President with the senate must be with the senate as a whole, so far as I know has never been departed from and it has always seemed to me the absolutely correct ground.

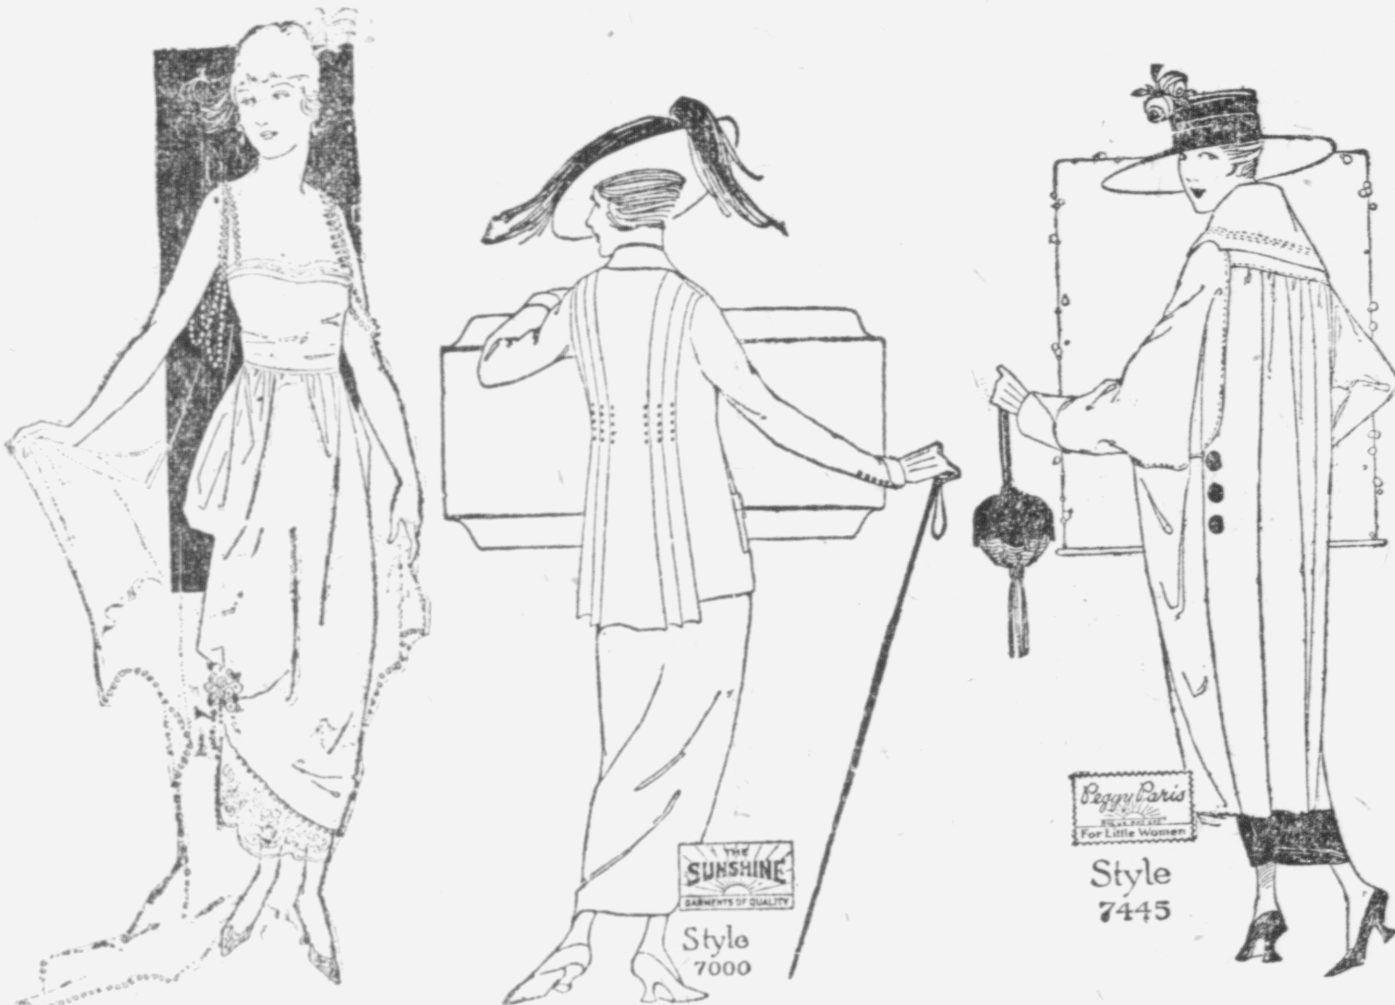

"The President, of course, has not asked to appear before the committee, who it is needless to say would receive him with the utmost respect, but I feel sure the President approves the unbroken rule as to the relations between the President and the senate formulated by Madison."

JULY CLEARANCE SALE

Opens Saturday, July 19th, Closes Saturday, July 26th

Because of the fact that all merchandise is gradually, but surely, rising in price in the market, it requires more than nerve for the merchant whose stock is clear and clean and keenly valuable, to put on a sale at any sort of discount from the selling price.

But—just now—because of our gratitude for a most liberal one-half year's business, we feel obligated to our patronage, and to insure just an equity as possible to all, we again state that not one article will be sold at the marked price.

ABSORBED INTO INDUSTRY

80 Percent of English Soldiers Find Work.

(By United Press.)

London, (By Mail)—Since the armistice 2,750,000 British soldiers have been discharged, of which number only 400,000 remain unemployed.

This means that 80 percent of the fighting men have been absorbed into industry, and statisticians claim that this is a greater proportion than France, Italy or the United States can show.

There has always been a certain percentage of out-of-works—known in pre-war days as "the mighty unemployed," and experts consider that in view of the great influx of female labor into the market, present figures show satisfactory progress.

HUNGARY TO DEFEND SOVIET GOVERNMENT

Yet Small Allied Army, Including America and Great Britain, Could Crush the Entire Army.

FOOD SITUATION SERIOUS

Vienna, July 18—Bolshevik-Hungary, like a wounded lion at bay, stands ready to battle the whole world in defense of the Soviet government, it was stated in a dispatch today.

Yet a small allied army, especially if it included Americans and the British could crush the entire army with ease, it stated.

The food situation is critical. People are virtually starving. Belacon is confronted with the problem of raising an army from people whose morals are of the lowest ebb and equip them with arms and munition.

The Red Army is preparing to fight the Roumanians and Czechs and probably can wage a successful warfare against them but they have no stomach to battle brothers in the White army.

"When Can I Get

That is the Inquiry Men Now Make Concerning the Light Weight, Quality Car

An Essex?"

No industry has equaled the automobile for its purpose. And judged by the way people everywhere have taken to it, no car has equaled the Essex in the quickness with which it has gained its leadership.

SO THE MATTER OF DELIVERY IS ALL

That is about the only question buyers now ask.

Factory production is now steadily increasing. It is close to a hundred cars a day. Buyers must have some patience. They must not expect to get an Essex off the floor whenever they may decide to buy. Wanted articles are not usually so easily obtained.

All dealers are forced to enter orders and make delivery in rotation. The man who buys today will get his Essex sooner than he who delays.

But isn't it worth while to take one's turn in buying such an important article as an automobile, and especially when the car is so universally praised as is the Essex?

12-Acre Tract of Wheat
Averages 31 Bushels to Acre
What probably is the best wheat yield in the county so far, is that raised by Earl Jones, on the L. F. Newhouse farm in Center township. On the 12 acre tract, it yielded 372 bushels, or an average of 31 bushels to the acre. The average of wheat this year is much lower than in former years, and wheat in many places does not average above 20 bushels.

UNCLE SAM IN THE ROLE OF A PHYSICIAN

Medical Care is Provided For Disabled Soldiers, Sailors and Marines During Training

130,000 MEN REGISTERED

Washington, July 17.—Disabled men who are in training under the Federal Board for Vocational Education are carefully watched by medical men. A complete physical and functional survey to determine the fitness of an applicant to enter upon a course of training is required by the amendment to the rehabilitation act. Medical care will be provided by the Federal Board throughout the period of training, whenever necessary, and at the end of the training a careful survey of the man's physical condition will be made.

More than 130,000 men with disabilities have registered with the Board. Of this number 84,879 have been interviewed, and 15,872 have been recommended for training. 4,762 disabled men are now in training under the direction of the Federal Board for Vocational Education and 10,000 are in employment.

Why Men Stick to This Car

THERE are men in this town who have driven motor cars for years, but who have never owned any car but the Hupmobile.

They see the performance of other cars—and they are satisfied that their Hupmobiles do better.

They are familiar with the tire, oil and gas mileage their friends get from higher priced cars—and they know their Hupmobiles do better.

They see cars laid up for repairs—often costly—while they enjoy practically uninterrupted service from their Hupmobiles.

These men stick to the Hupmobile through thick and thin for a very simple reason.

The Hupmobile serves them well. It gives them extraordinary performance, and really unusual economy.

We will be proud of the opportunity to give you a demonstration of such a car.

4 SENATORS CALLED TODAY

Kellogg, Minnesota, Capper and Mc-
Nary Discuss Document With
President Today

(By United Press.)

Washington, July 18.—Foreign governments are being sounded on their attitude toward Root's proposed reservations to the peace treaty in the event the senate should adopt one or all of them, a leading administration senator said today.

This senator, who declined to be quoted directly, declared that if the senate adopts the reservations, they will be proposed by at least one other government.

The general result, he declared, would be a serious delay in carrying out the peace settlement through delaying the final ratification, to make the treaty effective, and would hamper the immediate and successful launching of the league of nations.

In other words, this senator declared reservations, if passed by the senate, would "vitalize the contract" the nation has made for restoration and maintenance of peace.

Senator Kellogg said today that President Wilson's talk with him was "along the same line as with other senators." Kellogg said that his opinion has not been changed.

President Wilson today continued his attack on the opposition to the league of nations by calling to the White House four republican senators who are known to be open minded on the subject.

They are Senators Kellogg, Minnesota; Kenyon, Iowa; Capper, Kansas and McNary, Oregon.

Kellogg has favored a league of nations in principle for some time. Kenyon's attitude is considered doubtful. Capper is known to favor the formation of a league but would like certain amendments to the league. McNary is believed to desire some kind of league organization.

The president is expected to follow the same line of argument as he did yesterday with the first three republican senators called.

He will not ask the senators to change their opinions but will merely give them the inside information.

Many People Recall Incidents But
Monument is dated 1832, Which
is Too Far Back.

Men, while digging for a foundation, at the old Innis property, corner of Fourth and Morgan streets, unearthed a monument, badly decayed on account of its age. The granite slab had the name of Will Arnold inscribed on it, and gave his birth as June 11, 1805, and his death as July, 1832, the exact date being obscure.

The workmen are at a loss to explain just how the monument got there, buried underneath of the veranda, which was being torn down. Being dated back so far, no one has any recollections of what it might mean and rumors were going around this A. M. that probably the man's body was buried underneath of the porch; and some one else said that they remember a time when a man was hung at the same place where the house was built.

It was also reported that at one time a man by the name of Arnold lived there, but no one could give out anything which might explain the mystery of the monument.

The most likely thing about the monument is that at one time, it was used, like many are today, to keep the water from washing out the ground at the base of the downspouts on houses. Anyway, the Mr. Arnold has been dead for a long, long time.

A change in wind saved thousands of acres by back-firing the blaze. The cold night helped to check the spread of the flames. Only one fire was reported out of control today and about fifty men were called to fight this blaze.

Egg Production and Profit go Hand

LeRoy Jones, Extension Poultryman, met the poultrymen in the County Agent's Office yesterday afternoon and discussed the keeping of records, method of feeding, and management of the farm flock.

Plans for the culling demonstrations which will be held on August 12 and 13 were discussed. Four culling demonstrations will be conducted on these two dates by Mr. Jones. Arrangements were made for a demonstration to be held in each Township by some one of the poultry fanciers who learn the methods at the demonstrations.

These poultrymen will cull their own flocks on the succeeding week and those who do not have the opportunity of attending one of the meetings with Mr. Jones can attend one of the township meetings.

In discussing the value of keeping egg and feed records, Mr. Jones told an interesting story of the growth of E. W. Foster of Lawrence County who began keeping records with the Extension Department in 1915. During that year Mr. Foster produced 115 eggs per hen and made $180.00 net profit. He fed milk to his hens up till the first of June when he thought best to give the milk to other stock. The egg production dropped from 58 percent in May to 33 percent in June. Mr. Jones happened on the scene at this time and he explained the necessity of feeding either tankage, meat scrap, or milk. Tankage was supplied and the egg production raised to 45 percent for July and 51 percent for August.

Mr. Foster is still keeping records he added, and during the three years 1916 to 18 inclusive he made a net profit on his 200 hens of $1400. His egg production for the four years of record work grew each year as follows: 1915—115 eggs, 1916—135 eggs, 1917—146 eggs and 1918—158 eggs per hen.

Some one in Rush county has sent a remittance to Peter J. Krueger, collector of internal revenue and in their haste, either forgot to say for what, or for whom, the $9.00 was sent.

The remittance was made in an envelop belonging to the Rush County Council of Defense and it is supposed that the currency was sent in this manner for a reason and not unintentionally. Thomas M. Green, former chairman of the defense body, received a letter to that effect today from the department of revenue collections, asking him to aid them in finding a place to give the proper person credit.

Some people thought today that probably the money was sent from some conscious-stricken person, who left their name off intentionally. If anyone sent the $9.00, they should get the proper credit, and notify Mr. Green, who will reply to the internal revenue collector.

After graduating from DePauw, he entered Michigan university, where he graduated in the civil engineering course. After graduating he accepted a position with the Missouri Pacific railroad, with headquarters in St. Louis, and was working there at the time of his father's death.

He has the distinction of being one of the foremost engineers in charge of the building of the famous Moffitt Railroad over the Rocky Mountains, and it was there that the government recognized the man they wanted to send to Russia. His appointment was considered, after some of the leading experts of his line, had made application.

Dr. Will C. Smith of this city, commenting on his cousin's position this morning, remarked that he was truly a wonderful genius in his line of work, and displayed a photograph of him which resembles the likeness of the Smith family here. He is a man about 47 years old.

Chester Taylor and Sylvia Miller, the Rushville men who pled guilty to the larceny charge in Shelbyville on Wednesday, were taken yesterday to Jeffersonville by the Shelby county sheriff, where they were sentenced to serve a term from one to fourteen years.

Local officials commented today that it would be a relief, not to have them here, getting into trouble. When arrested at Shelbyville, while attempting to sell stolen corn, it was thought that the men would be brought to trial here, because the deed took place in Rush county, but local officials made no effort to get them here, as it was certain that they would be dealt with properly by the Shelby court.

Chicago, July 17.—One hundred thousand building and street construction workers were locked out here today on order of the Carpenters Contracting association and the Building Construction Employers' association following the refusal of 80,000 of the men to return to work. The men asked an increase of 20 cents an hour in their wages. The employers agreed to grant them 12 1/2 cents more. An ultimatum was issued 8 a. m. today, to return to work. When no men showed up at that time the lock-out order was issued. The wage loss to the men was estimated at $600,000.

Washington, July 18.—Repeal of the daylight saving plan was again attached as a rider to the agricultural appropriation bill by the house agriculture committee today.

This action was taken despite the fact that President Wilson already had once vetoed the bill, because of the daylight savings repeal.

Administration foes are determined to force the agricultural appropriation bill and repeal clause through the house and put it before the president again.

The new bill differs from the one already vetoed in that it exempts from repeal the standard time zone.

The senate appropriation committee today voted to report favorably the sundry civil bill as passed by the house.

The bill once vetoed by President Wilson, carried $14,000,000 for vocational education for soldiers and sailors. The house increased the measure $6,000,000 more than the veto asked for. No change was made in the measure as repassed by the house.

Local Banks Will be Supplied With
The Small Banks to be Used
This Summer

Rushville school children will have an opportunity to obtain hand grenade banks, according to an announcement made today by Robert E. Springsteen, director of the Indiana War Savings Committee. Local banks will be supplied with these small banks, and any child under seventeen can have one by pledging to buy War Savings Stamps. An announcement will be made later when the banks here have them on hand.

Mr. Springsteen explains about the hand grenades, and tells how they may be obtained, in the following:

"The hand grenade is the highest modern development of a time-honored weapon. The War Department owned 15,000,000 when the armistice was signed. Some of these are now available through the Savings Division of the Treasury Department for distribution to school children as savings banks to encourage the forming of habits of thrift.

"These hand grenade savings banks are real hand grenades with the percussion caps and high explosives removed. They are, with the exception of the money slot, externally the same as those the Sammies used to clean out crooks and bends in captured trenches, enemy dug-outs and machine gun nests. A live hand grenade was not dangerous until the ring and pin has been withdrawn which freed the trigger that started a percussion cap, resulting in a terrific explosion, within three or five seconds. The small squares of steel thrown by the explosion were deadly within radius of 40 to 50 feet.

Every child or grown-up will want one of these souvenirs of the world war. Only those who are willing to save and help their government can have them as the War Savings Organization is the sole distributor in the Seventh Federal Reserve District and we are distributing them through banks to school children.

Sneak thieves have been busy in Rushville for the last week. They have been especially partial to money, having taken nothing else. More than $75 in cash has been taken from four homes. Mrs. R. D. Tompkins, 120 East Seventh street, discovered Sunday that $17.50 belonging to a Methodist church society for which she was treasurer, had been stolen. The thieves left twelve one dollar bills in her purse from which the money was stolen.

The sum of $7 was stolen from the home of A. B. Wadsworth, 602 North Main street, and approximately $25 was taken from the home of James V. Young, 1041 East Seventh street. Robert A. Wadsworth, 117 North Main street, of Warsaw, Ind., who was there visiting, had $12 in his pocket when he was taken.

No One in Court For Two Mornings
And Tail Lights Are Burning
Properly

MUST ALSO PARK RIGHT

No one has been up before Mayor Irvin the last two mornings, on charges of violating the automobile laws, and the police especially have not found anyone violating the tail light law. The police remarked this morning, that as far as they could see, "everyone was lit up." They noticed a few machines passing without the proper lights, but could not catch them.

There seems to be some misunderstanding among the automobilists that the traffic ordinances are to apply in the residence district just the same as in the business district. The proper turning at corners and the same parking methods, apply in the residential portion, and the police have often been rebuked after notifying the car owner about parking on the wrong side of the street.

The new bill differs from the one already vetoed in that it exempts from repeal the standard time zone.

The senate appropriation committee today voted to report favorably the sundry civil bill as passed by the house.

The bill once vetoed by President Wilson, carried $14,000,000 for vocational education for soldiers and sailors. The house increased the measure $6,000,000 more than the veto asked for. No change was made in the measure as repassed by the house.

Local Banks Will be Supplied With
The Small Banks to be Used
This Summer

Rushville school children will have an opportunity to obtain hand grenade banks, according to an announcement made today by Robert E. Springsteen, director of the Indiana War Savings Committee. Local banks will be supplied with these small banks, and any child under seventeen can have one by pledging to buy War Savings Stamps. An announcement will be made later when the banks here have them on hands.

Mr. Springsteen explains about the hand grenades, and tells how they may be obtained, in the following:

"The hand grenade is the highest modern development of a time-honored weapon. The War Department owned 15,000,000 when the armistice was signed. Some of these are now available through the Savings Division of the Treasury Department for distribution to school children as savings banks to encourage the forming of habits of thrift.

"These hand grenade savings banks are real hand grenades with the percussion caps and high explosives removed. They are, with the exception of the money slot, externally the same as those the Sammies used to clean out crooks and bends in captured trenches, enemy dug-outs and machine gun nests. A live hand grenade was not dangerous until the ring and pin has been withdrawn which freed the trigger that started a percussion cap, resulting in a terrific explosion within three or five seconds. The small squares of steel thrown by the explosion were deadly within radius of 40 to 50 feet.

Every child or grown-up will want one of these souvenirs of the world war. Only those who are willing to save and help their government can have them as the War Savings Organization is the sole distributor in the Seventh Federal Reserve District and we are distributing them through banks to school children

Kellogg, Minnesota, Capper and Mc-
Nary Discuss Document With
President Today

(By United Press.)

Washington, July 18.—Foreign governments are being sounded on their attitude toward Root's proposed reservations to the peace treaty in the event the senate should adopt one or all of them, a leading administration senator said today.

This senator, who declined to be quoted directly, declared that if the senate adopts the reservations, they will be proposed by at least one other government.

The general result, he declared, would be a serious delay in carrying out the peace settlement through delaying the final ratification, to make the treaty effective, and would hamper the immediate and successful launching of the league of nations.

In other words, this senator declared reservations, if passed by the senate, would "vitalize the contract" the nation has made for restoration and maintenance of peace.

Senator Kellogg said today that President Wilson's talk with him was "along the same line as with other senators." Kellogg said that his opinion has not been changed.

President Wilson today continued his attack on the opposition to the league of nations by calling to the White House four republican senators who are known to be open minded on the subject.

They are Senators Kellogg, Minnesota; Kenyon, Iowa; Capper, Kansas and McNary, Oregon.

Kellogg has favored a league of nations in principle for some time. Kenyon's attitude is considered doubtful. Capper is known to favor the formation of a league but would like certain amendments to the league. McNary is believed to desire some kind of league organization.

The president is expected to follow the same line of argument as he did yesterday with the first three republican senators called.

He will not ask the senators to change their opinions but will merely give them the inside information

THE POLICE SAY THAT EVERYONE WAS LIT UP

No One in Court For Two Mornings
And Tail Lights Are Burning
Properly

No one has been up before Mayor Irvin the last two mornings, on charges of violating the automobile laws, and the police especially have not found anyone violating the tail light law. The police remarked this morning that as far as they could see, "everyone was lit up." They noticed a few machines passing without the proper lights, but could not catch them.

There seems to be some misunderstanding among the automobilists that the traffic ordinances are to apply in the residence district just the same as in the business district. The proper turning at corners and the same parking methods, apply in the residential portion, and the police have often been rebuked, after notifying the car owner about parking on the wrong side of the street.

Captain Will S. Coleman, former Rushville physician, has landed in New York and expects to be out of the service by August 1, according to word received here. He is officially stationed at Camp Dix, but is staying at the Hotel McAlpin in New York. Capt. Coleman was commissioned a first lieutenant and entered the service August 12, 1918. After a short period of training in a southern camp, he sailed for France September 22 and was promoted while serving in France. He was stationed at Tours all the time he was overseas.

GRAVE MARKER IS UNEARTHED BY MEN

Monument of Will Arnold is Found
Underneath of Porch at Old
Innis Property.

HOW DID IT GET THERE?

Many People Recall Incidents But
Monument is dated 1832, Which
is Too Far Back.

Men, while digging for a foundation, at the old Innis property, corner of Fourth and Morgan streets, unearthed a monument, badly decayed on account of its age. The granite slab had the name of Will Arnold inscribed on it, and gave his birth as June 11, 1805, and his death as in July, 1832, the exact date being obscure.

The workmen are at a loss to explain just how the monument got there, buried underneath of the veranda, which was being torn down. Being dated back so far, no one has any recollections of what it might mean and rumors were going around this A. M. that probably the man's body was buried underneath of the porch; and some one else said that they remember a time when a man was hung at the same site where the house was built.

It was also reported that at one time a man by the name of Arnold lived there, but no one could give out anything which might explain the mystery of the monument.

The most likely thing about the monument is that at one time, it was used, like many are today, to keep the water from washing out the ground at the base of the downspouts on houses. Anyway, the Mr. Arnold has been dead for a long, long time.

FOREST FIRES NOT CHECKED

Several Ranches Burning.

(By United Press.)

Spokane, Wash., July 18.—With 30,000 acres of forests reduced to smoldering ashes, several ranches burning and thousands of men fighting the flames, the fires were reported today to be holding their own against the crew of men trying to exhaust them.

A change in wind saved thousands of acres by back-firing the blaze. The cold night helped to check the spread of the flames. Only one fire was reported out of control today and about fifty men were called to fight this blaze.

Egg Production and Profit go Hand
In Hand—Tells How to Pro-
duce Properly

LeRoy Jones, Extension Poultryman, met the poultrymen in the County Agent's Office yesterday afternoon and discussed the keeping of records, method of feeding, and management of the farm flock.

Plans for the culling demonstrations which will be held on August 12 and 13 were discussed. Four culling demonstrations will be conducted on these two dates by Mr. Jones. Arrangements were made for a demonstration to be held in each Township by some one of the poultry fanciers who learn the methods at the demonstrations.

These poultrymen will cull their own flocks on the succeeding week and those who do not have the opportunity of attending one of the meetings with Mr. Jones, can attend one of the township meetings.

In discussing the value of keeping egg and feed records, Mr. Jones told an interesting story of the growth of E. W. Foster of Lawrence County who began keeping records with the Extension Department in 1915. During that year Mr. Foster produced 115 eggs per hen and made $180.00 net profit. He fed milk to his hens up till the first of June when he thought best to give the milk to other stock. The egg production dropped from 58 percent in May to 33 percent in June. Mr. Jones happened on the scene at this time and he explained the necessity of feeding either tankage, meat scrap, or milk. Tankage was supplied and the egg production raised to 45 percent for July and 51 percent for August.

Mr. Foster is still keeping records he added, and during the three years 1916 to '18 inclusive he made a net profit on his 200 hens of $1400. His egg production for the four years of record work grew each year as follows: 1915—115 eggs, 1916—135 eggs, 1917—146 eggs and 1918—158 eggs per hen.

$9 BELIEVED TO BE CONSCIENCE MONEY

Sum by Revenue Collector Without Explanation.

Some one in Rush county has sent a remittance to Peter J. Krayer, collector of internal revenue and in their haste, either forgot to say for what or for whom, the $9.00 was sent.

The remittance was made in an envelop belonging to the Rush County Council of Defense and it is supposed that the currency was sent in this manner for a reason and not unintentionally. Thomas M. Green, former chairman of the defense body, received a letter to that effect today from the department of revenue collections, asking him to aid them in finding a place to give the proper person credit.

Some people thought today that probably the money was sent from some conscience-stricken person, who left their name off intentionally. If anyone sent the $9.00, they should get the proper credit, and notify Mr. Green, who will reply to the internal revenue collector.

Position in Russia Today.

SON OF LATE CALVIN SMITH

He is Member of the Inter-Allied
Commission, Reorganizing Rail-
roads in Russia.

It is a native of Rush county who gives Uncle Sam his orders as to the Russian railway system; and this distinction belongs to Charles H. Smith, of Union township. Charles Smith was born and reared here in Rush county, and worked his way up in railroad circles until he was chosen from hundreds of leading railway experts, to a position which is one of the most important in the world today.

His father, Calvin Smith, died here only a few years ago, and only two sons comprised the immediate family. The other son, Will A., is in the implement business at Greenfield. The late Calvin Smith was a brother to the late Dr. Wm. H. Smith of this city, and Charles Smith is a first cousin to Donald, Dr. Will C., and Walter Smith and others in this county.

After graduating from DePauw, he entered Michigan university, where he graduated in the civil engineering course. After graduating he accepted a position with the Missouri Pacific railroad, with headquarters in St. Louis, and was working there at the time of his father's death.

He has the distinction of being one of the foremost engineers in charge of the building of the famous Moffitt railroad over the Rocky Mountains, and it was there that the government recognized the man they wanted to send to Russia. His appointment was considered, after some of the leading experts of his line, had made application.

Dr. Will C. Smith of this city, commenting on his cousin's position this morning, remarked that he was truly a wonderful genius in his line of work, and displayed a photograph of him which resembles the likeness of the Smith family here. He is a man about 47 years old.

Mr. Smith is a member of the Inter-Allied Commission for the reorganization of the Russian rail-

Two Rushville Men Sentenced From Shelbyville Are Now at Real
Hard Work

Chester Taylor and Sylvia Miller, the Rushville men who plead guilty to the larceny charge in Shelbyville on Wednesday, were taken yesterday to Jeffersonville, by the Shelby county sheriff, where they were sentenced to serve a term from one to fourteen years.

Local officials commented today, that it would be a relief, not to have them here, getting into trouble. When arrested at Shelbyville, while attempting to sell stolen corn, it was thought that the men would be brought to trial here, because the deed took place in Rush county, but local officials made no effort to get them here, as it was certain that they would be dealt with properly by the Shelby court.

By sending Taylor to the prison at release his bondsmen here of the $1000 bond which he was held on after pleading not guilty to a bootlegging charge in the circuit court here.

Chicago, July 17.—One hundred thousand building and street construction workers were locked out here today on order of the Carpenters Contracting association and the Building Construction Employers' association following the refusal of 80,000 of the men to return to work. The men asked an increase of 20 cents an hour in their wages. The employers agreed to grant them 121 cents more. An ultimatum was issued 8 a. m. today, to return to work. When no men showed up at that time the lock-out order was issued. The wage loss to the men was estimated at $600,000.

Votes Favorably on Amended
Civil Sundry Bill

(By United Press.)

Washington, July 18.—Repeal of the daylight saving plan was again attached as a rider to the agricultural appropriation bill by the house agriculture committee today.

This action was taken despite the fact that President Wilson already had once vetoed the bill because of the daylight savings repeal.

Administration foes are determined to force the agricultural appropriation bill and repeal clause through the house and put it before the president again.

The new bill differs from the one already vetoed in that it exempts from repeal the standard time zone.

The senate appropriation committee today voted to report favorably the sundry civil bill as passed by the house.

under a uniform plan, the conditions of which are as follows:

"1. One grenade is to be loaned by the bank to any child under seven years of age signing the Thrift agreement.

"2. It is to be opened by the bank when presented by the child and Thrift or War Savings Stamps given in exchange for the contents.

"3. It will become the property of the child as soon as he has thus purchased through the bank one or more War Savings Stamps (maturity value $5.00 each), children under 10 being required to buy one War Savings Stamp and those over 10 two stamps.

"4. The bank is to fill out and give the child at the end of the vacation period (if a school child) a certificate of his summer savings in order that he may present same to his teacher, and get credit therefor in the War Savings Society now or hereafter organized in his grade.

"5. If the bank so desires, it may ask the children who earn these souvenirs to write essays on "How I Won My Hand Grenade," offering such essay prizes and publishing such essays as it desires. The War Savings Organization requests copy of the essay winning first honors in case your bank conducts a contest.

"6. After the schools have reopened and the children have been supplied, the hand grenade banks may be given to anyone over 17 years of age who purchases three or more War Savings Stamps.

The Federal Reserve District officials are writing to every bank in the state, pointing out the advertising value to the banks in issuing the hand grenades. The bank will be permitted to have a metal tag bearing its name attached to each hand grenade bank. Mr. Springfield said that it is his belief that at least 50,000 school children of Indiana will receive his little hand grenade savings bank. He based his opinion on the large number of children who are attending school during this summer.

One of the big packers says only 10 per cent of our meat production is exported—from now on this will greatly increase, especially as to pork. The world is short of fats—only about 6 per cent of the above cold storage supply is lard. This means about 4,500,000 pounds daily supply of lard, or as a Chicago packer says, four-fifths of a pound per capita. No doubt Europe will take a good deal of this.

The front wheel is a caster wheel permitting a short turn without lifting the drill and making steering between crooked rows easy.

The feeds are chain-driven from the axle of the two rear wheels which have ratchet hubs making both wheels drivers.

The Dowagiac five disc is self-guiding. It trails so perfectly that when the horse is driven midway between the corn rows the driver need not touch the handles and at the ends of rows the drill follows the horse in making the short turn. Each disc has independent up and down motion with spring pressure—the only way for uniform depth on uneven ground. With the convenient lever all discs are lifted when turning or transporting the drill to and from the field.

Practically every one of the county's biggest hog raisers are now feeding it.

Admits he Knows Little About Military Affairs, in Testifying in Libel Suit Today.

Mt. Clemens, Mich., July 18.—"A mobile army is a large army," Henry Ford told the attorneys quizzing him today as a witness in his million dollar libel suit against the Chicago Tribune.

"Do you know what a mobile army is?" the Tribune lawyer asked. "A large army," Ford answered. "I don't know much about military affairs," he commented when the attorney defined the term.

The definition was given out while the Tribune lawyer struggled to get admission of evidence to show what was in the famous peace advertisements of Ford.

Theodore Delavigne, his peace secretary, wrote the advertisement, Ford said, adding he had warned Delavigne to stick closely to facts. Attorney Stevenson produced the Tribune editorial which was the basis of the suit.

"Please read it," he said, as he offered it to Ford.

The manufacturer asked to be excused.

"Then I will read it myself," Stevenson said.

"Will you please stop me if I read anything of an anarchistic nature?" he asked.

Ford stopped him when he read the headlines, "Ford Is An Anarchist."

At this point some time was lost by arguments by attorneys.

Attorney Lucking, Ford's attorney, called Stevenson's attitude brutal and inhuman.

Investing For College.

What do pig-club and canning-club boys and girls do with their project money? This question was put to 350 girls and boys at a recent meet of club members held at Purdue University.

It was found that 58 of those present owned Liberty Bonds, which they had purchased with their own earnings; 109 had War Savings Stamps; and practically everyone had bought Thrift Stamps. Out of then unnumbered 117 had made definite plans to apply the money made in club work to a college education.

Hitching the plow to the college. There you have the American farm girl and boy of 1919. Having these young people at college is going to mean even bigger crops than are now in sight on our farms in this year of wonders.

Just how tight is this hitch to the college going to be? What is the American farmer doing to back up the ambitious boy and girl who has learned to invest in Government securities? What proportion of our eight billion dollar corn, wheat and oat crop is going into college education? If only one percent of the value of these three crops alone is invested in Government securities, 10,000 boys and girls will be the possessors in 1924 of one-thousand-dollar Treasury Savings certificates. This is what the government will do to further the farmer's plan. It will add $162 in 1924 to every $838 invested in Treasury Savings Certificates in August 1919, or it will add $16.20 for every $83.80 invested, or 81 cents for every $4.19 invested. These are August prices for Government securities. The price advances each month to the end of the year, but it must be remembered that each advance brings the maturity date a month nearer.

But fortunately for those who have learned to invest the story does not end with 1919. The Government what the Government will do to further any man's saving plan this year and the next and the next to the end that the habit of thrift and saving may become a permanent part of the national life. The Secretary of the Treasury recently made public the purpose of the Treasury Department to make permanent the War Savings movement, and to continue the sale of Thrift Stamps, War Savings Stamps, and Savings Certificates.

This announcement has special interest for all club girls and boys who are planning a college education. It means even more to fathers and mothers who are backing up the college plan or undertaking some other investment plan. In fact it means a great deal to the average American to have within easy reach Government securities ranging in value from $5 to $1,000 which combine high interest and tax exemption. It means that young and old may continue the lessons in finance learned during the war, that they may build their fortunes by regular investments in Government securities and at the same time help supply the capital so urgently needed to restore the world to a peacetime basis.

It transpires, however, that it was both a sane and a saneless Fourth-

Jews Are Against The Bolsheviks

Due to the Fact That Jews Have Been Heaviest Losers Among Bourgeoisie of Russia.

PEASANTS WERE FAVORED.

On Other Hand it is True That Some Jewish Intellectuals Have Become Leaders in Bolshevism.

By FRANK J. TAYLOR.
(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)

New York, July 18—Bolshevism is not a revolution by the Russian Jews for the Russian Jews, as is popularly believed according to the Bolsheviks. Investigating the way the Jews line-up with regard to bolshevism leads to the conclusion that three-fourths of the Jews are against bolshevism.

This stand on the part of the majority of Jews is probably due to the fact that the Jews have been the heaviest losers among the little bourgeoisie of Russia. This is especially true of small cities. In the provincial districts most of the Jews were buyers and sellers and had gathered together small fortunes, usually from five to twenty-five thousand rubles. Today that sum is nothing, but in the old days it represented quite an amount, comparatively speaking, enough to enable operation of a small business.

Generally the Jewish merchant lost this fortune entirely through confiscations of stocks in stores, or of warehouses of wool and cotton grains. It was the Jew who lost heaviest because he had most. While fortunes of merchants were confiscated, either without payment or at low prices set by the state, the peasant was allowed to sell at market prices. Confiscation was not attempted with the peasant, who was regarded as a producer.

A typical case was called to the attention of the correspondent while he was interviewing the chief of the economic soviet in Moscow. Two Jews from the provinces reached Moscow and immediately put their case before the soviet for decision.
They had been sent by the merchants of their village, almost all Jews
all of whom were required to give up wool and other goods they had invested in at a price set by the government. The peasants, on the other hand, were allowed to sell at a competitive price.

What the result of the protest
was, the correspondent could not learn, since it had to be passed along to several soviets, and numerous yards of red tape had to be unwound
before the matter could be solved.
Probably the goods were confiscated
before the decision could be altered.

Similarly, in all towns, the Jews have run small shops which have been closed by the bolsheviks. The Jews were the ones who lost their means of support, and had to go to work at new places. The Jewish rabbi has been against bolshevism
from the beginning and have exercised a great influence over their people.

On the other hand, it is true that a large percentage of Jewish intellectuals, mostly men who have been the victims of the old government, have become leaders in the bolshevik movement.

This has been explained by the fact that under the old regime Jews
were prevented from entering certain other lines of activity, by laws which discriminated against the Hebrew. The Jews naturally took to intellectual pursuits and became writers, lawyers, and thinkers. They welcomed any system which would guarantee them an equal opportunity. These intellectuals quickly adjusted themselves to the bolshevik ideas, and owing to their keenness
and energy, many came out on top in the new government.

That the majority of bolsheviks
are Jews is not true, it is evident.
Probably they have a large percentage of representation in governmental positions than the Gentiles,
but every effort is made by the soviet government to prevent the Jews
from gaining prominence. The soviet government is striving to prevent discrimination against the Jews, and have succeeded in doing so well, the principle of the problem seems to be along the borders, where the armies are fighting. There the reported "pogroms" are causing bitter feeling. According to the bolsheviks the "pogroms," resulting in the massacre of entire villages, are confined to the antibolshevik side of the line. The worst Jewish "pogroms" have been in the south, mostly in the Ukraine. Many villages of Jews have been wiped out, according to the best information available.

Play With a Moral

David W. Griffith's superb picture
"A Romance of Happy Valley," which will be shown for the last time tonight, at the Princess is a photoplay with a distinct moral. It is a story of simple folk, but its treatment is so powerful as to make it a screen classic whose power for good is far reaching and effective.
The various roles are charmingly portrayed, the principals being Lillian Gish, Robert Harron, George Fawcett and Kate Bruce.

A trick finger ring with a secret chamber for hiding some small but precious article may well be said to be the inspiration for the dramatic climax in "The Law of Men,"
the latest Thomas H. Ince photoplay starring Enid Bennett, which will be shown tomorrow.

The story was written by John Lynch who in connection with his literary work has been a globe trotter and a constant collector of curios and antiques. It was during a visit to Cairo, Egypt, several years ago that he found the curious ring at a weird little shop conducted by an old Egyptian. He assured the American collector that it was an exact copy of the ring worn by ancient Egyptian rulers that they might commit suicide when they were in danger of falling into the hands of an enemy.

Of course, Mr. Lynch didn't believe the story, but the ring was not expensive and the idea, he thought,
was worthy of sometime, working
into a modern story, so he bought the novelty. He has now made use of it in a dramatic way in a modern courtroom scene. It is used by Andrew Robson, who plays the part of a criminal lawyer in "The Law of Men," in which Enid Bennett is featured, supported by Niles Welch and an all star cast. The picture was directed by Fred Niblo, under the supervision of Thomas H. Ince.

"Virtuous Men" Next Week

News of particular interest to the motion picture patrons of Rushville comes in the announcement of Manager R. D. Sampson that E. K.
Lincoln favorite male star of the screen is soon to be seen at the Mystic Theatre in "Virtuous Men,"
a big society melodrama personally directed by Ralph Ince. For several years Mr. Lincoln has been regarded as one of the bright particular luminaries of the photoplay world.
Through his successful appearances
in many productions he has established himself as one of the outstanding figures of the present constellation of stars who dominate the silver screen. Lincoln is the ideal type of leading man. Standing a trifle over six feet in height, with handsome features which lend themselves admirably to the art of motion picture photography, he possesses a peculiarly winning personality. He differs materially from certain other players of the screen
in that he possesses decided acting ability combining a perfect type for pictures with real histrionic talents.

Mr. Lincoln is ably supported in "Virtuous Men" by such well-known players as Grace Darling, whose features are known from coast to coast, due to a trans-continental tour made a few years ago, and Clara Joel, the legitimate actress who scored a distinct personal triumph in the successful Broadway
play, "Business Before Pleasure," and "Within the Law," and many other favorites of stage and screen.

Where Can I Find Relief From Itching, Terrifying Eczema?

Question on Lips Afflicted

There is a harassing discomfort caused by Eczema that almost becomes a torture. The itching is almost unbearable and the skin
seems on fire with the burning irritation. A cure from local applications of salves and ointments
is impossible, because such treatment can only allay the pain temporarily. The disease can only be reached by going deep down to its source, which is in the blood, the disease being caused by an infection which breaks out through the skin. That is why the most satisfactory treatment for all so-called skin diseases is S. S. S., for this remedy so thoroughly cleanses the blood that no impurities can remain. Get a bottle today, and you will see results from the right treatment. Medical advice free.

Mr. Swine Breeder:

Are you vaccinating your hogs with Hog Cholera Serum
when your hogs may have Necrotic Enteritis Hemorrhagic Sep-ticemia, Necro-Bacillosis or any of a number of contagious and infectious diseases prevalent this year? If so, do you know that it will increase the death rate instead of lowering it? Do you know that we will not vaccinate your herd with Hog Cholera Serum if they have another distinct disease until the herd is free,
as far as possible from the other infection.

Do you know that we have all the authority on Swine Diseases, both from the State and Washington, D. C., to aid us?
Do you know that a layman who vaccinates could lose all the hogs in the county and would have no professional reputation to lose, while by law we must keep a record of serum and virus used, and could lose our permits to practice? Do you think the layman receives less for vaccinating your hogs than we do? If you really don't know, why don't you find out? If the layman farmer who vaccinates, if he is intelligent, could make more on his farm, would he be vaccinating? Would you prefer to pay that fee to a layman for the mere act of injecting your swine without an expert knowledge of their diseases or would you rather pay us a less fee and at least have the protection of the best authority that we could get, either from State or Government?

Do you know that many stockholders of the Swine Breeders'
Pure Serum Company are employing us to vaccinate for them this year, because they will be protected if necessary by the best authority in the country.

Remember the Veterinarians discovered Hog Cholera Serum and Bacterin and Vaccine treatment and other treatments for other diseases without cost to you.

Remember they are the only ones qualified to continue research work on swine diseases and every day are working hard to get better treatment for the other diseases of swine.

Mr. Swine Breeder think this over seriously for your own protection.

Respectfully,

Dragoo & Mull,

"A Little Off of Main, But It Pays to Walk"

The regular Tri-Kappa meeting, which was to have been held Monday evening has been postponed until Monday evening, July 27. At this time the sorority will meet with Miss Jessie Anderson at her home, south of the city.

A large crowd from this city attended the dance given at Glenwood last evening. Music was furnished by Milton's orchestra throughout the evening. Many were in attendance from Knightstown, Connersville and Falmouth also.

The captains and officers of the C. W. B. M. of the Little Flat Rock Christian church will hold a short business session at the church Sunday morning in the rear room. Each captain is requested to be present or send a representative.

The Ladies Aid Society of the United Brethren church was entertained yesterday afternoon by Mrs. Jesse McDaniel at her home in West Seventh street. An interesting program was carried out after which refreshments were served.

Mrs. Nellie Abercrombie was hostess for the Marion Social Circle yesterday afternoon at her home in West Fourth street. The hours were spent socially over various kinds of needlework, after which light refreshments were served. Besides the members present there was one guest.

The Woman's Home Missionary Society of the Methodist church met yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Charles Moore at her home in North Sexton street. No regular program was carried out, on account of Mrs. George Havens being unable to be present, but Mrs. John Jordan, who attended the Methodist Centenary at Columbus, Ohio, gave an interesting talk on the Exposition, which was followed by a social hour. Twenty members and one guest, Mrs. Hugo Moffitt of Cincinnati were present.

The conferences yesterday, and those for today were the first of a long series of similar meetings Mr. Wilson is arranging with members of the opposition party in the senate, whom he proposes to take into his confidence concerning the conduct of the peace negotiations at Versailles. So far he has called in only those senators who have expressed themselves in favor of the treaty, or who have not made a public declaration either for or

Opens Saturday, July 19th, Closes Saturday, July 26th

Because of the fact that all merchandise is gradually, but surely, rising in price in the market, it requires more than nerve for the merchant whose stock is clear and clean and keenly valuable, to put on a sale at any sort of discount from the selling price.

But—just now—because of our gratitude for a most liberal one-half year's business, we feel obligated to our patronage, and to insure just an equity as possible to all, we again state that not one article will be sold at the marked price.

against, but later he is expected to confer with virtually every Republican senator, including those who have most bitterly opposed ratification.

The position taken by President Wilson in his talks yesterday, was understood to be that the United States could not undertake to decide the force of any reservation/adopted, no matter how general might be the agreement here that it did not vitiate the covenant. It was said the President regarded the treaty in the light of a contract, and felt that any change or reservation whatever must have the acquiescence of the other parties, and could not be interpreted by the party inserting it.

The following statement has been made by Senator Lodge regarding the possibility of a meeting between the President and the senate foreign relations committee:

"There seems to be in the press, a great deal of misunderstanding about the President desiring to appear before the committee on foreign relations. No committee of congress has any right or ought to have any right to summon the President of the United States before them and no suggestion has been made that they should do so. The ground which Madison took, that he could not receive officially a committee of the senate because the senate was an independent and co-ordinate branch and the dealings of the President with the senate must be with the senate as a whole, so far as I know has never been departed from and it has always seemed to me the absolutely correct ground."

The President, of course, has not asked to appear before the committee, who it is needless to say would receive him with the utmost respect, but I feel sure the President approves the unbroken rule as to the relations between the President and the senate formulated by Madison.

80 Percent of English Soldiers Find Work.

(By United Press.)
London, (By Mail)—Since the armistice 2,750,000 British soldiers have been discharged, of which number only 400,000 remain unemployed.

This means that 80 percent of the fighting men have been absorbed into industry, and statisticians claim that this is a greater proportion than France, Italy or the United States can show.

There has always been a certain percentage of out-of-works—known in pre-war days as "the mighty unemployed," and experts consider that in view of the great influx of female labor into the market, present figures show satisfactory progress.

HUNGARY TO DEFEND SOVIET GOVERNMENT

Vienna, July 18—Bolshevik-Hungary, like a wounded lion at bay, stands ready to battle the whole world in defense of the Soviet government, it was stated in a dispatch today.

Yet a small allied army, especially if it included Americans and the British could crush the entire army with ease, it stated.

The food situation is critical. People are virtually starving. Belcon is confronted with the problem of raising an army from people whose morals are of the lowest ebb and equip them with arms and munition.

The Red Army is preparing to fight the Rumanians and Czechs, and probably can wage a successful warfare against them but they have no stomach to battle brothers in the White army.

Often times persons who are recovering from sickness have difficulty in recovering their strength.

"When Can I Get

That is the Inquiry Men Now Make Concerning the Light Weight, Quality Car

An Essex?"

No industry has equaled the automobile for its purpose. And judged by the way people everywhere have taken to it, no car has equaled the Essex in the quickness with which it has gained its leadership.

SO THE MATTER OF DELIVERY IS ALL

That is about the only question buyers now ask.

Factory production is now steadily increasing. It is close to a hundred cars a day. Buyers must have some patience. They must not expect to get an Essex off the floor whenever they may decide to buy. Wanted articles are not usually so easily obtained.

All dealers are forced to enter orders and make delivery in rotation. The man who buys today will get his Essex sooner than he who delays.

But isn't it worth while to take one's turn in buying such an important article as an automobile, and especially when the car is so universally praised as is the Essex?

Averages 31 Bushels to Acre
What probably is the best wheat yield in the country so far as that raised by Earl Jones on the L. F. Newhouse farm in Center township. On this 12-acre tract, it yielded 372 bushels of an average of 31 bushels to the acre. The average of wheat this year is much lower than in former years. Earl Jones has many places where he grows wheat. On this tract, it is the best.

130,000 MEN REGISTERED

Washington, July 17.—Disabled men who are in training under the Federal Board for Vocational Education are carefully watched by medical men. A complete physical and functional survey to determine the fitness of an applicant to enter upon a course of training is required by the amendment to the rehabilitation act. Medical care will be provided by the Federal Board throughout the period of training, whenever necessary, and at the end of the training a careful survey of the man's physical condition will be made.

More than 130,000 men with disabilities have registered with the Board. Of this number 84,879 have been interviewed, and 15,872 have been recommended for training. 4,762 disabled men are now in training under the direction of the Federal Board for Vocational Education and 10,000 are in employment.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Mull, southwest of the city, have received a letter from their son, Leslie K. Mull, dated May 30th, and was from Archangel, Russia. The letter stated that they had been working up to the front and that in the last five days they had been under heavy fire. He said it was interesting for several hours. Private Mull may sail for home just any time now, as the navigation was opened only recently. His division is the 85th and 310 Engineers.

Why Men Stick to This Car

THERE are men in this town who have driven motor cars for years, but who have never owned any car but the Hupmobile.

They see the performance of other cars—and they are satisfied that their Hupmobiles do better.

They are familiar with the tire, oil and gas mileage their friends get from higher priced cars—and they know their Hupmobiles do better.

They see cars laid up for repairs—often costly—while they enjoy practically uninterrupted service from their Hupmobiles.

These men stick to the Hupmobile through thick and thin for a very simple reason.

The Hupmobile serves them well. It gives them extraordinary performance, and really unusual economy.

We will be proud of the opportunity to give you a demonstration of such a car.
